Welcome Back

Program to expand recycling in Indiana.

Bunn Box, which has a recycle and transfer station at 6301 Ardmore Ave., will receive $419,698. The money will be used to expand operations and improve efficiencies with the construction and demolition business. The money will go toward a new crusher, stationary platform scales and a front-end loader with scales.

Projected amounts to be diverted from landfills include 150,000 tons of concrete, 2,500 tons of rebar, 2,500 tons of metal, 1,000 tons of wood and 480 tons of cardboard.

1st Source Bank Foundation Financially Supports EACS Educational Foundation Efforts

On February 6, 2018, 1st Source Bank Foundation representatives (Andrea Ehresman (Business Banker 1st Source Bank and EACS Educ. Fndn. Board VP) and Erik Watson (Branch Manager, New Haven 1st Source Bank)) provided EACS Educational Foundation representatives with a check in the amount of $5,000 for a grant to support the Foundation's efforts.

According to EACS Educational Foundation director Rose Fritzinger, "These funds will help support our EACS Educational Foundation's Dual Credit / Collegiate Connection program whereby the Foundation reimburses EACS high school Junior and Senior students who successfully complete college coursework while still enrolled in an EACS high school. Through these efforts, since the Foundation began this initiative, more than 1,300 students have begun their college experience while still in high school. EACS

Medicine High School Baseball Series Again Schedule Will Also Feature Collegiate Clash Between Saint Francis and Indiana Tech

The fifth annual Parkview Sports Medicine High School Baseball Series is set to return to Parkview Field this spring. For the first time, the schedule of games at Minor League Baseball's top-rated venue will also include a matchup between two local collegiate programs.

Between April 24 and May 10, 22 different Northeast Indiana and Northwest Ohio high schools, plus Fort Wayne's University of Saint Francis and Indiana Tech, will square off in a dozen games at the home of the Fort Wayne TinCaps. The six days of doubleheaders will be played while the TinCaps are off or on the road.

With Parkview Sports Medicine again underwriting the costs for the games, participating schools don't have any ballpark rental costs. The games will serve as a fundraiser for the schools. For every $5 ticket sold, $4 goes back to the schools. (The remaining $1 goes toward Parkview Field's Ballpark Maintenance and Improvement Fund.)

"As we say, Parkview Field is about more than TinCaps baseball," TinCaps President Mike Nutter said. "We have so many phenomenal student-athletes across all sports in this region. It's really Educational Foundation representatives thank the 1st Source Bank Foundation for this tremendous support. "

Indiana Michigan Power

Sends Help to Restore Power in Puerto Rico

In addition to employees, I&M deployed six fleet vehicles to the island, including bucket trucks.

"We are honored to send needed resources and I&M energy experts to help our fellow Americans in Puerto Rico rebuild and restore the island," said Toby Thomas, Indiana Michigan Power President & COO. "I'm always impressed with our employees' willingness to travel long distances and work long hours to help those affected by natural disasters. Equally, I appreciate the support from I&M employees and their families as we come together to help those in need at home or across the country."

St. Joseph Hospital

Chooses Karen Fordham as CEO

Arriving at what is arguably one of the most significant moments in its storied history of serving patients in and around the heart of the city, new Chief Executive Officer Karen Fordham stands to benefit from a wave of enthusiasm surrounding St. Joseph Hospital's future.

"Karen's background and tireless pursuit of positive change made her the right person at the right time to lead St. Joseph Hospital into the future," said Mike Poore, regional president and CEO, Lutheran Health Network. "Her ability to turn vision into action, which includes successfully managing more than $100 million in construction projects during her healthcare career, is just a small sample of what excites our board at St. Joe and me."
