Burt Blee has been, in some form, part of Fort Wayne's legal landscape since the early 1920s. Although the firm has evolved over the decades, some aspects have not changed. Client commitment, depth of skill and experience continue to define our success.

To best serve clients' ever-evolving legal needs, each of the firm's nearly two dozen attorneys excels in specific areas of law and collaborates of Stewart, Brimmer, Peters & Company Insurance to maximize opportunities to promote a safe work environment and assist with stretching their risk management resources. The grant funds will be used to purchase safety equipment or safety training programs that will reduce or limit workers' compensation exposure.

IPEP was created in 1989 as a risk-sharing pool for public entities, as a response to the need for public employers to find affordable workers' compensation coverage. IPEP has grown to provide workers' compensation claims administration for more than 700 public entities including cities, towns, counties and schools.

The Fort Wayne TinCaps

Will host the sixth annual Parkview Sports Medicine High School Baseball Series

The Fort Wayne TinCaps will host the sixth annual Parkview Sports Medicine High School Baseball Series at Parkview Field this spring. The series features 10 games, showcasing 20 different local schools in April and May, while the TinCaps are on the road.

Parkview Sports Medicine is once again underwriting the event so participating schools don't have any ballpark rental costs. In fact, the games actually will serve as fundraisers for the schools. For every $5 ticket sold, $4 goes back to the schools. (The remaining $1 goes toward Parkview Field's Ballpark Maintenance and with colleagues who possess other related strengths. The result is a well-coordinated, tailored approach to meeting the needs of our clients.

We provide highly experienced representation to individuals and small, medium and large businesses. We also regularly serve as local counsel for midwest and national entities, and individuals needing legal assistance in Indiana. Clients turn to us year after year as their legal needs change. Our attorneys forge strong bonds with our corporate clients who confidently choose our firm to handle their personal legal matters. Clients trust our lawyers to provide practical and effective advice while keeping their bottom line in mind.

As phase one of its "Your Energy, Your Future" initiative, which seeks to provide a more affordable and more sustainable energy mix, including being coal-free by 2028, NIPSCO announced three new Indiana-based wind farm projects that will tie into NIPSCO's electric system.

"We're excited for the opportunity to add more home-grown renewable energy in Indiana," said NIPSCO President Violet Sistovaris. "In addition to the economic benefits that projects like these add, the transition we're making in our electric generation equates to an estimated $4 billion in cost-savings for customers over the long-term."
